Participation Statement

I have read and accept the River Flair Terms and Conditions as stated below, including those regarding cancellation.

I accept that River Flair is in no way liable for the loss or damage to any personal property whilst on this course, unless it can be proven to be caused by gross negligence of River Flair Staff.

Participation in adventurous activities entails a risk of injury. River Flair staff are trained and appropriately qualified to run these activities and will at all times proceed in such a way as to limit the risk of injury. However, by signing this statement, participants in these activities confirm that they are aware of and accept these risks and are responsible for their own actions and involvement.

Terms and Conditions

Booking

To make a booking, a booking form must be completed and returned to the postal or email addresses stated on the booking form. A booking has not been officially made until confirmation has been given, either by email or by telephone.

Payment

A deposit of 50% of the course fee is required on booking. The full balance must be paid two weeks prior to the commencement of the course. If the course is full at the time of booking, all payment will be refunded, or an alternative date offered.

Cancellation

Cancellation must be made in writing and sent by post or email to the addresses given on the booking form. Cancellation on the part of the client will incur the following charges:

- 30 days before the course - 25% of the course fee
- 29 -15 days before the course - 50% of the course fee
- 14 days or less before the course – 100% of the course fee

In the event of cancellation of the course by River Flair due to the weather or other circumstances out of our control, an alternative date will be offered or a 50% refund given.

Safety

Adventurous activities such as kayaking, canoeing and white water safety and rescue training entail an inherent risk of injury. River Flair staff are trained and appropriately qualified to run these activities and will at all times proceed in such a way as to limit these risks. Participants must at all times comply with safety instructions given by River Flair staff. Responsibility for accidents will not be accepted by River Flair unless gross negligence can be proven. Many of our courses are physically demanding and require a good level of physical fitness. It is the responsibility of the client to ensure that they have an adequate level of fitness for the activity that they choose. All those participating in water based activities must be able to swim. All medical conditions should be stated on the booking form and the instructor or coach should be made aware of any changes to the participants' health or fitness prior to the start of the course. All information given will be treated as strictly confidential.
